

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS MINOR

---

The Minor in International Relations exposes students to two political science subfields—comparative politics and international relations. Students gain understanding of international interactions, such as conflict and trade, as well as the politics of other nations, such as alternative government forms. Students also will be exposed to the politics of the world's major regions through region specific courses.

Course Requirements for the Minor

The following courses, or their approved transfer equivalents, are required of all candidates for this minor.

Course	Title	Units
POLS 141	Introduction to International Relations	3
POLS 142	Introduction to Comparative Politics	3
Select 14 units from the following International Relations Courses:		14
POLS 102	Politics of the Developing World
POLS 340A	Model United Nations
POLS 340B	Model United Nations
POLS 344	U.S. Foreign Policy
POLS 345	War, Conflict, and Security
POLS 346	International Organizations and NGO's
POLS 347	Comparative Political Behavior
POLS 410	International Law
POLS 411	Political Economy
POLS 412	Comparative Political Institutions
POLS 414	Politics of Terrorism
POLS 443	Politics of Europe
POLS 444	Politics of Asia
POLS 446	Politics of the Middle East
POLS/HIST 447	Politics of Africa
POLS 449	Issues in Comparative Politics and International Relations
POLS 489B	Internship in International Relations
Total Units		20