

COMMUNICATION SCIENCES AND DISORDERS MS

More Information

Advising Requirement

Advising is mandatory for this program. Consult your department advisor or program coordinator for information.

The Master of Science in Communication Sciences and Disorders provides students graduate-level coursework in speech-language pathology. Upon completion of this degree, students are eligible to pursue state licensure and national certification in speech-language pathology as well as the California speech-language pathology services credential.

The MS pattern is used to complete requirements for the Speech-Language Pathology Services Credential. Information on current examination requirements can be found on the Praxis (<http://www.ets.org/praxis/>) website.

Requirements for the MS in Communication Sciences and Disorders

Completion of all requirements as established by the program, graduate advisory committee, the Graduate Coordinator, and Graduate Studies, to include:

In order to participate in clinical practicum and internships, the following are required:

- professional liability insurance,
- tuberculosis test,
- CPR certification,

Graduate Grading Requirements

All courses in the major (with the exceptions of Independent Study - 697, Comprehensive Examination - 696, Master's Project - 699P, and Master's Thesis - 699T) must be taken for a letter grade, except those courses specified by the department as ABC/No Credit (400/500-level courses), AB/No Credit (600-level courses), or Credit/No Credit grading only. While grading standards are determined by individual programs and instructors, it is also the policy of the University that unsatisfactory grades may be given when work fails to reflect achievement of the high standards, including high writing standards, expected of students pursuing graduate study.

Students must maintain a minimum 3.0 grade point average in each of the following three categories: all course work taken at any accredited institution subsequent to admission to the master's program; all course work taken at California State University, Chico subsequent to admission to the program; and all courses on the approved master's degree program.

Continuous enrollment is required. At the discretion of the academic program, a maximum of 30 percent of the units counted toward the degree requirements may be special session credit earned in non-matriculated status combined with all transfer coursework. This applies to special session credit earned through Open University, or in courses offered for academic credit through Regional and Continuing Education.

Graduate Time Limit

All requirements for the degree are to be completed within five years of the end of the semester of enrollment in the oldest course applied toward the degree. See Master's Degree Requirements (<https://catalog.csuchico.edu/graduate-requirements/masters-degree-requirements/>) for complete details on general degree requirements.

Graduate Requirement in Writing Proficiency

All students must demonstrate competency in writing skills as a requirement for graduation. Communication Sciences and Disorders students will demonstrate their writing competence through successful completion of CMSD 682.

Prerequisites for Admission to Conditionally Classified Status

1. Satisfactory grade point average as specified in Graduate and Postbaccalaureate Admission Requirements (<https://catalog.csuchico.edu/graduate-requirements/graduate-postbaccalaureate-admission-requirements/>).
2. Approval by the department and Graduate Studies.

3. An acceptable baccalaureate from an accredited institution, or an equivalent approved by Graduate Studies.
4. Completion of the Graduate Record Exam.

Prerequisites for Admission to Classified Status

In addition to any requirements listed above:

1. Successful completion of CMSD 488 or equivalent, as determined by the faculty.
2. Successful completion of American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) required undergraduate courses:
 - a. human-focused biological science course
 - b. chemistry or physics course
 - c. statistics course

Advancement to Candidacy

In addition to any requirements listed above:

1. Development of an approved program plan in consultation with the Graduate Coordinator.
2. Classified graduate standing.
3. Completion of two semesters of full-time coursework and clinic with at least a 3.0 grade point average.
