Insight

Kinesiology is an integrative discipline that promotes lifelong learning and participation in human movement to enhance quality for all through sport, exercise, and physical activity. The Department of Kinesiology offers innovative and engaging instruction, scholarship, and professional service through its three degree programs: a BS in exercise physiology, a BA in kinesiology, and an MA in kinesiology.

These programs are especially fulfilling for students who have a passion for helping others and who are interested in promoting physical activity and its impact on health, wellness, society, and quality of life. Students study human movement and how the body can function efficiently in a wide variety of settings—everywhere from athletic fields, school, hospitals, rehabilitation centers, or research labs.

Coursework focus on several areas of emphasis such as exercise physiology, sport and exercise psychology, physical education teacher education, adapted physical education, coaching, strength and conditioning, biomechanics, and pre-professional training for allied health (e.g., physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, nursing, and medicine).

Experience

Aside from access to the Northern California outdoors, dedicated on-campus space inside Yolo Hall include laboratories for adapted physical education, athletic training, biomechanics, exercise physiology, strength and conditioning, motor behavior, and pedagogy. Other instructional facilities include dance studios, a climbing wall, a ropes course, two gymnasiums, tennis courts, outdoor track, weight training/fitness rooms, golf, soccer, and multipurpose fields.

Students participate in service learning and internship experiences to prepare them for future work in a variety of movement related professions. Many of our students engage with the Adapted Physical Education Program which serves over 150 community members through two service learning programs, BE:WEL and the Autism Clinic. These programs, particularly the Autism Clinic, continue to broaden students' community and campus impact through neurodiversity initiatives, expanding existing student support services, and grant and research work.

Connections with peers and professionals happen through a variety of student clubs including: Exercise Physiology Club, Physical Education/Adapted Physical Education Teacher Education Club, and Strength and Conditioning Club. These clubs support and prepare students for future careers by creating connections, developing leadership skills, interacting with health-care and fitness professionals, and learning how to become knowledgeable candidates for future careers and graduate school.

Outlook

The BA in kinesiology prepares students to teach, coach, and have administrative careers as well as leadership positions in their communities. They become professionals in the fields of physical education, coaching, personal training, fitness and wellness, and adapted physical activity. California State University, Chico physical education and adapted physical education teachers are in high demand and get jobs!

One of the primary goals of the BS in exercise physiology is to prepare students for graduate education in a variety of allied health professions (e.g., physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, respiratory therapist, corporate fitness nursing, etc.).

Graduates of the master's program fill the need for teachers, coaches, health professionals, and community recreation leaders. Recent graduates have gone on to medical schools, physician assistant programs, physical therapy programs, occupational health programs, and prestigious PhD granting universities.

Introduction to basic summer backpacking skills, including equipment, nutrition, fitness, minimum impact camping, safety, beginning map and compass skills, leadership issues, and environmental ethics. Emphasis on technical applications and the implementation of these skills in adventure programs. Successful completion of this course meets the requirements for two national certifications: 1) The Wilderness Education Association's Wilderness Steward Certification; 2) Leave No Trace Trainer Certification. This course requires a ten-day field session taught over Thanksgiving break. 6 hours laboratory, 2 hours lecture. (006700)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Lower Division; Sustainable CourseKINE 227 Winter and the Mountain*4 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 226 or equivalent.Typically Offered: Spring only

Introduction to winter wilderness living skills including nutrition, minimum impact camping, snow physics, avalanche, safety, medical issues, back country skiing techniques, snow shelters, leadership issues, and environmental ethics. Emphasis is on technical applications and the implementations of these skills in adventure programs. Successful completion of this class earns the student an American Institute of Avalanche Research and Education Level I certification. This is a physically demanding course requiring 10 continuous days of camping in winter conditions. It is not for the novice. 9 hours laboratory, 1 hour lecture. (006685)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Lower Division; Sustainable CourseKINE 228 Methods of Teaching Canoeing and Kayaking*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 226 (may be taken concurrently).Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course gives students an introduction to whitewater canoeing and kayaking skills. Students gain an understanding of the equipment, techniques, and procedures to conduct canoeing and kayaking activities in flat water, moving water, and whitewater environments. Emphasis is on the development of individual paddling skills, safe and conscientious paddling, and group management while on moving water. This course requires additional field time taught on weekends. 6 hours laboratory, 1 hour lecture. (006707)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Lower Division; Sustainable CourseKINE 247 World Sports and Games*3 Units GC, GE*Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Student learning focuses on how sports and games are part of an integrated physiological, psychological, and social being in societies around the world. Students develop appreciation, understanding, and respect of various cultural contexts and how sport, games, and play behaviors are part of physical expression and cross-cultural interaction. Student learning in this area shall include consideration of how sport and games are related to human sociality, psychological, well-being, health, and wellness. Students also engage in physical activity participation in global games with emphasis on social relationships. 3 hours lecture. (021258)

General Education: Lifelong Learning and Self-Development (E)Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Lower Division; Global CulturesKINE 295 Disability and Physical Activity in the Media*3 Units GE*Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course provides students with an opportunity to learn about disability in film and physical activity. Moreover, the experience provides students an in-depth look into the portrayal of individuals with disabilities in film and media and how this does or does not coincide with societal views and values, education, physical education, politics, individual and group behavior. Perceptions and personal views regarding individuals with disability and their inclusion/segregation in society are explored through visual arts. 3 hours lecture. (020448)

General Education: Lifelong Learning and Self-Development (E)Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Lower Division

- KINE 296 American Sports in Film 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 The study of American sport history, the language of sport, and the contributions made by men and women from a variety of ethnic backgrounds. The principal mode of study is a group of selected sport films. Special note is made concerning humor, legend, and herosim. 3 hours lecture. (006986)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division
- KINE 302 Foundations of Childhood Physical Education 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is designed to present a knowledge base of physical education that includes the analysis of movement skills and movement patterns, physical fitness, and how physical education is inherently linked to health and wellness. Also studied in this course will be children's motor development and how emotional, cognitive, and social growth characteristics influence motor development. 3 hours lecture. (006877)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 305 Philosophy of School Based Teaching Physical Education 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is designed for Single Subject majors and prospective teachers using a reflective approach to school based physical education. The course focuses on seven primary content areas to include teacher socialization, teaching/coaching role conflict, reflective teaching and learning, lifespan model of physical education, diversity and equity, and curriculum models. 3 hours lecture. (006933)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 306 Net Games & Self-defense for Teachers 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is designed for future physical education teachers and focuses on analysis and performance of martial arts/self-defense and net sports (badminton, pickleball, and volleyball). Psychomotor, cognitive and affective aspects of these sports are emphasized. This course aligns with the physical education model content standards for California K-12 public schools and incorporates developmentally appropriate practices. 3 hours lecture. (020995)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 308 Rhythms and Dance for Teachers 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is designed to give students the tools and inspiration to become effective and reflective teachers of rhythms and dance in K-12 physical education programs. Students learn to analyze, perform, and teach fundamental movement skills set to different rhythms, leading to a variety of dance forms including creative dance, folk, line, hip-hop, square dance, and ballroom/social dance. The focus of the course is to learn to teach these skills in a developmentally appropriate manner, using effective teaching techniques and motivational strategies. Students also learn how rhythms and dance are integral components of both the CA state and national (NASPE) standards for K-12 physical education. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture. (006890)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 309 Developmentally Appropriate Physical Education for Children 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 The philosophies and objectives, curriculum content (movement concepts and motor skills), and evaluative techniques for developmentally appropriate children's physical education are emphasized. 3 hours lecture. (006892)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 312 Outdoor Education for Teachers 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course gives students a foundation in theory, philosophy, and methods used to teach developmentally appropriate outdoor and adventure education. Students explore imitative games, problem solving, low and high ropes course activities, rock climbing, orienteering, and legal liability and safety issues associated with developing programs. Although the course is designed for physical education majors, it is also appropriate for anyone wishing to incorporate adventure education into their curriculum. Field trips are required. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture. (006895)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 314 Psychology of Coaching 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course provides prospective coaches with knowledge about the psychological factors and principles used in coaching, team dynamics, and the enhancement of athletic performance. 3 hours lecture. (006990)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 315 Introduction to Adapted Physical Activity 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 A study of common disabilities found across the lifespan. Discussions are held about the historical and philosophical basis for adapted physical activity, and the impact of state and federal legislation. Analysis of the roles and responsibilities of the adapted physical education specialist and the inclusive educational environment also are examined. This course is applicable to all disciplines dealing with the disabled. 3 hours seminar. (015911)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 316 Principles of Sports Injury Management 4 UnitsPrerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Theory and practice in the prevention, care, and rehabilitation of injuries commonly encountered in sport and competitive athletics. Concepts of injury recognition and management will be covered. 2 hours activity, 3 hours clinical. (006902)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 320W Foundations of Exercise and Sport Psychology (W) 3 Units W, GW*Prerequisite: GE Written Communication (A2) requirement; KINE majors and minors only.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course examines the foundations of psycho-social principles, theories, and research related to sport and exercise behavior. Select topics include motivation, goal-setting, stress, anxiety, group dynamics, leadership, injury, and exercise adherence. Students learn how to integrate this knowledge into their given discipline. 3 hours lecture. (006898)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper Division; Writing Course; Graduation Writing AssessmentKINE 321 Motor Development and Behavior 3 Units*Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Theories of motor development, acquisition, and refinement of skills as well as skill themes and movement concepts are studied. Physical, neurological, and physiological principles and qualitative changes in motor skills occurring from infancy to preadolescence and adolescence to older adulthood are analyzed. 3 hours lecture. (006935)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 322 Biomechanics 4 Units*Prerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202 with a grade of C- or higher or faculty permission for non-majors.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Anatomical and mechanical bases of human movement with application to more skillful and safe performance. Qualitative and quantitative methods of analysis are introduced. 2 hours activity, 3 hours lecture. (006973)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 323 Physiology of Exercise 4 Units*Prerequisite: BIOL 104 with a grade of C- or higher or faculty permission for non-majors, basic computer literacy skills.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is an in-depth study of the physiology of exercise. Emphasis will be placed on energy metabolism during exercise and its relationship to the circulatory, pulmonary, and neuro-endocrine systems. Practical application will be stressed through discussions of clinical exercise physiology, exercise prescription, environmental exercise physiology, exercise and disease, special populations, biological adaptation, and the biology of peak performance. Concepts will be reinforced through laboratory exercises. 2 hours activity, 3 hours clinical. (006968)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 324 Exercise Physiology: Metabolism 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 323.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course introduces students to the cellular aspects of exercise. Students become familiar with the mechanisms of exercise-induced adaptations and how exercise ameliorates metabolic disorders. Students gain insight into the hormonal and neural regulation of cellular processes, the various processes at the cellular level, the mechanisms responsible for increased enzyme content in trained skeletal muscle, and how exercise affects gene transcription. 3 hours lecture. (006969)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 331 Principles of Team Sports 3 Units*Typically Offered: Spring only

Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of coaching and performing in a team sport environment. One major project will be designed by each student. 3 hours lecture. (007007)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 332 Principles of Individual Sports 3 Units*Prerequisite: Basic computer literacy skills.Typically Offered: Fall only

Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of coaching and performing in an individual sport environment. One major project will be designed by each student. 3 hours lecture. (007008)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 335 Youth Fitness3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This course is designed for pre-service physical educators as well as students who wish to learn about the physiology of children's movement and methods of enhancing and measuring youth fitness. Topics include the musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, and respiratory systems as they relate to aerobic and anaerobic exercise in children, adolescents, and young adults. This course also addresses the physiological basis of the five components of fitness as well as how to assess them in a physical education setting. Students learn youth fitness concepts and understand how to apply them to teaching K-12 physical education. Students work directly with children to apply concepts and practice assessment techniques. 3 hours lecture. (021467)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 345 Motor Learning and Human Performance*3 Units*Prerequisite: Basic computer skills or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course explores the principles and concepts involved in learning motor skills and the conditions that can influence that learning. Topics may include open and closed loop systems, feedback, attentional focus, inverted u-theory, practice schedules, and many others. 3 hours lecture. (006939)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 346 Sport and Society*3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This course examines the connections between sport and society, including socialization, values, education, deviance, the economy, and the media. Attention is given to the ways that gender, race, social class, sexuality, and the body influence sports, as well as recent controversial issues such as player and fan violence, and drug abuse among athletes. 3 hours lecture. (006942)

Cross listing(s): SOCI 346Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 351 Aquatics for the Adapted Instructor*2 Units*Prerequisite: First Aid and CPR or faculty permission; WSI recommended.Typically Offered: Spring only

Specific instructor training in aquatics programs for individuals with disabilities. Inclusive and developmentally appropriate aquatic activities, sports, and games are included. Qualified students may earn Special Olympic coach's certification in aquatics. 2 hours clinical. (006784)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 386 Sports Epidemiology*3 Units*Prerequisite: Basic computer skills or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Methods of epidemiology are now being applied to sports performance, injury prevention and recovery, and exercise-related disease prevention. This course will cover observational study design and analysis, including elementary probability theory using Bayes rule, sampling, relative risk, odds ratio, data adjustment via elementary analysis covariance, and data extrapolation and prediction. 3 hours lecture. (006974)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 388 Personal Training*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 323.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This class provides the basic principles, applications, and experiences necessary to design, instruct, and supervise individuals in safe and appropriate exercise activities. The course incorporates theories of communication, program design, equipment selection, legal/liability considerations, assessment and follow up, business and marketing concepts related to the fitness industry. In addition, various theories of individual and group motivation, such as goal setting and problem solving as well as social support and reward systems, are discussed. The course provides relevant knowledge, skills, and practical applications to individuals who will someday or are currently responsible for developing and administering individual and group exercise programs, including personal trainers, physical education teachers, physical therapists, and coaches. 3 hours lecture. (020200)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 390 Principles of Strength and Conditioning*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 323.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Course is designed to offer sound, systematic training programs for individuals who wish to apply strength and conditioning techniques to specific sports and/or physical activities. Various new and traditional weight training techniques and programs will be reviewed in light of desired outcomes for the individual participant in sports and physical activities. 3 hours lecture. (006959)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 398 Special Topics*1-3 Units*Prerequisite: Department permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. 1 hour lecture. (006987)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course more than onceCourse Attributes: Upper Division

- KINE 399 Special Problems 1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is an independent study of special problems and is offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours supervision. (006988)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 410 Developmentally Appropriate Physical Education for Middle School Students 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 309.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 Students learn about developmentally appropriate physical education for youth in middle school (grades 6-8). Students also learn about the philosophies and goals/objectives, curriculum content, and evaluative techniques using sport activities such as lacrosse, team handball, ultimate frisbee, and disc golf. 2 hours activity, 2 hours clinical. (006893)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 411 Assessment in Physical Education 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 309, faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 The course is designed for the prospective physical education teacher. Application of tests and measurements in the evaluation process will be defined. Included will be the evaluation of sport skill, motor ability, physical performance, and cardiovascular fitness. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture. (006972)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 430 Administration and Management of Sport and Fitness Programs 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall only
 Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of administration/management of modern day physical education and athletic programs. Students will be systematically introduced to the meaning of management and the different styles of management in the conduct of specific programs such as intramurals, athletics, instructional programs, clubs, corporate fitness, etc. One major project will be designed by each student. 2 hours field studies, 2 hours lecture. (007006)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 460 Foundations of Outdoor Education 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course provides the historical and philosophical foundations for using the outdoors as a medium for learning. Basic teaching and leadership styles used in instruction are emphasized, including a detailed look at the ethics involved in using the outdoors and adventure programming in education. 3 hours lecture. (007019)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 461 Theory of Outdoor Leadership 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 460.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course discusses the theoretical foundations of outdoor leadership. Instruction incorporates a focused investigation into the nature of outdoor leadership as a profession; including the theory and application of outdoor leadership and the core competencies of being an outdoor leader. The goal is to learn about the elements that comprise effective leadership in the outdoors. 3 hours lecture. (020981)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 470 Outdoor Education Immersion Semester 15 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 226 and one of the following KINE 224, KINE 227, KINE 228 or equivalent.
Typically Offered: Spring only odd years
 Semester-long wilderness experience providing future teachers, counselors, and group leaders with a foundation to planning theory, goals, and safety practices of an extended wilderness expedition. The course is field-based, meaning that the classroom is remote wilderness settings. Key in this instruction is the participant's involvement in a group development experience while at the same time learning the skills, knowledge, and awareness necessary to conduct safe, ethical, and effective wilderness-based learning programs. Substitution with courses from the National Outdoor Leadership School, Outward Bound, the Wilderness Education Association, or other qualified programs is possible. 45 hours clinical. (007022)
Grade Basis: ABC/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 480 Exercise Testing and Prescription 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 323.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 Introduction to the essential principles and skills of exercise testing and prescription. Students acquire knowledge of and skill in risk factor and health status identification, fitness appraisal, and exercise prescription for low to moderate risk individuals and individuals with controlled diseases. Students demonstrate the ability to incorporate suitable and innovative activities that will improve an individual's functional capacity. In addition, advanced concepts of strength, flexibility and body composition are discussed. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture. (007023)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 482 Exercise Pathophysiology 3 Units
Prerequisite: Bachelor's Degree in any discipline or KINE 323 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 Exercise Pathophysiology, formerly known as Medical Topics in Exercise Physiology, focuses on how exercise ameliorates various chronic disorders. The course addresses obesity, metabolic, cardiovascular, muscular, skeletal, and auto-immune disorders. 3 hours seminar. (007027)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 484 Developmentally Appropriate Physical Education for High School Students. 3 UnitsPrerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 308, KINE 309, KINE 410, KINE 411.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is designed to provide students with the tools and inspiration needed to become effective and reflective teachers of physical education at the high school level. Students learn: how to use NASPE and CA State standards to develop quality lesson plans for instruction; concepts and techniques that promote developmentally appropriate physical education for youth in high school (grades 9-12); implications of research for teaching quality physical education focused on helping students become active for life; and the important role the physical educator plays in adolescents' physical activity participation. Students develop and improve their own knowledge and skills in health-related fitness activities such as cardio-kickboxing, yoga, and inline skating. They also learn how to use a variety of fitness equipment in ways that fosters enjoyable fitness development for high school students. 2 hours activity, 2 hours clinical. (006894)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 485 Seminar in Sports Medicine 3 Units*Prerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202, KINE 323 (may be taken concurrently); or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is designed to explore the diseases and injuries typically encountered in sports and exercise. Topics include physiology of adaptations, prevention of athletic injuries, physiology of trauma and inflammation, musculoskeletal arthritic, and environmental distress. 3 hours seminar. (007028)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 489 Internship Seminar 3 Units*Prerequisite: At least junior standing and faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Preparation and supervised practical work or leadership experience in various private and public agencies, organizations and services which may include: hospitals, recreation programs, community and professional organizations, health clubs, corporations, clinics, schools and athletic programs. Specific internship placements are required for given emphases and certifications. See your advisor. 3 hours seminar. (006980)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 489L Assistant Leadership Seminar 1 Unit*Prerequisite: KINE 470 or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Students who have demonstrated a high level of proficiency serve as assistant instructors in a selected Outdoor Education course. Students take active leadership roles; planning, sequencing and teaching adventure topics and skills; develop a comprehensive risk management plan. Students receive supervision and feedback on their leadership, instructional planning and teaching skills. The Teaching Assistant may need to be involved in field-based trips lasting 2 to 15 days and should, schedule accordingly. 1 hour seminar. (020982)

Grade Basis: Credit/No CreditRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 505 Exercise Behavior and Adherence 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 320W or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is a study of the inter-relationships of behavioral, mental, and personal factors of exercise. Topics include exercise motivation, interventions and adherence; the impact of exercise on mood states; and the relationships between exercise, mental health and immune function. New skills such as interviewing are introduced. Focus is both theoretical and practical. 3 hours lecture. (020852)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 513 Programming in Disability Sport 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall only

A study of disability sport and programming for individuals with orthopedic, neurological, and sensory disabilities. Evaluation of the anatomical and physiological implications and their effect upon psychomotor functioning. 3 hours clinical. (006897)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 514 Programming for Intellectual, Neurological, and Learning Disabilities 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

A study of programming for individuals with disabilities, including intellectual, neurological, learning, and other health impairments. Instructional methods and intervention strategies will be explored in the psychomotor domain. 3 hours lecture. (020035)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 515 Collaboration in Adapted Physical Education 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Spring only

The development and interrelationships personal-social aspects of human movement, groups, and physical education, recreation, and sport experiences throughout the lifespan for individuals with disabilities. Focus includes social influences and interrelationships of peer relations, professional interactions, interdisciplinary team dynamics, and family systems. 3 hours lecture. (006998)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper DivisionKINE 516 Motor Assessment for Individuals with Disabilities 3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall only

Assessment of physical growth, motor development and proficiency, nutrition, motor fitness, and perceptual motor characteristics of individuals with disabilities. Emphasis is placed on testing procedures, evaluation of screening devices, authentic assessment, and practical implementation. Specific assessment instruments will be those commonly used in an adapted physical education setting. 3 hours lecture. (006997)

Grade Basis: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Upper Division

- KINE 520 Interdis Autism Clinic 3 Units
Prerequisite: A survey course on disability, faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is designed for students who are interested in working with individuals with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and their families. Students examine evidence-based practices for ASD, as well as the organization, administration, planning, and evaluation of interdisciplinary programming. Students spend 2 hours per week in the Autism Clinic observing interventions for promoting physical activity and healthy behaviors. 3 hours seminar. (020201)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 524W Biomechanical Analysis (W) 3 Units W
Prerequisite: KINE 322 and basic computer literacy.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 Introduction to research in biomechanics. Emphasis is on quantitative videographic techniques of sport and exercise activities. Other technological and bibliographic research methods are covered. 3 hours seminar. (007003)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Writing Course
- KINE 530 Advanced Principles of Strength and Conditioning 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 322 (may be taken concurrently), KINE 323, KINE 390.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This class provides the fundamental theories, applications, and hands on experiences necessary for a comprehensive understanding of the applied principles of strength and conditioning for athletic populations. Requirement for certification as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association are addressed. Students learn to develop optimal training programs, using periodization training principles for a variety of sports, positions, and events. Students are assigned to CSUC athletic teams for hands on practical experience. 3 hours lecture. (021468)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 564 Facilitating the Adventure Experience 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 222 recommended.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course focuses on the process of facilitation. Specific attention is paid to transfer of learning, outdoor education process/theory, use of metaphors, small group development, debriefing/processing, providing appropriate feedback, therapeutic approaches, framing experiences, and the various theories involved in the use of adventure experiences as a medium for education/therapy. Applications are generalized to specific populations (e.g., youth at risk, chemical dependency, businesses, university orientation programs, and public schools). This class focuses on advanced methods of facilitation and processing. 3 hours lecture. (007021)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Sustainable Course
- KINE 586 Anatomical and Pathomechanical Aspects of Sports Injuries 3 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 103, BIOL 104, KINE 322.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 The study of select human anatomy and specific pathomechanics related to sports and physical activity injuries. The course will focus on the role of anatomical structure and pathomechanical mechanisms of joint and tissue specific to injuries that occur to physically active populations. Previous study of human anatomy and kinesiology are required. 3 hours seminar. (007030)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 588 Seminar in Sport and Physical Activity Health Care 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 Advanced study of sports and physical activity health care. Topics include concepts of pathological orthopedic radiography, pharmacology, surgical techniques and recovery, and current trends in human performance health care. Previous study of athletic injury evaluation and rehabilitation required. 3 hours seminar. (007032)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 589 Internship in Kinesiology 1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is an internship offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours supervision. (020921)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 598 Special Topics 1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. 1 hour lecture. (007033)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course more than once
Course Attributes: Upper Division
- KINE 599 Special Problems 1-3 Units
Prerequisite: Faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
 This course is an independent study of special problems offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 3 hours supervision. (007035)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 599H Physical Education Honors Senior Research 3 Units

Prerequisite: For Honors students only, who have completed 9 upper-division units in physical education courses. Permission of Honors advisor required, faculty permission.

Typically Offered: Inquire at department

An intensive senior year, two-semester culminating experience taken as two 3-unit classes in consecutive semesters. Project outline and research first semester. Honors paper or project is prepared during second semester. High level of academic excellence is required. The paper or project must be approved by the department's Honor Advisor, the Department Chair, and the University Honors Director. The paper or project must be publicly presented. 3 hours seminar. (007036)

Grade Basis: Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units

Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 600 Seminar in Kinesiology 3 Units

Typically Offered: Fall only

A course designed to investigate the relationship between the various facets of the discipline of kinesiology, including philosophy, history, psychology, sociology, exercise physiology, perceptual-motor learning, biomechanics, athletic training, and pedagogy. 3 hours seminar. (007037)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 601 Statistical Methods in Kinesiology Research 3 Units

Typically Offered: Fall only

Study of the descriptive and inferential statistics commonly used in kinesiology research. Emphasis is on learning concepts critical to reading research and using statistical computer programs with kinesiology data. 3 hours seminar. (007038)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 602 Research Design in Kinesiology 3 Units

Typically Offered: Spring only

The formation of research problems, evaluation of research, and research report styles in kinesiology. The interrelation of theory and research and the variety of research methods (e.g., descriptive, experimental, qualitative) are examined. This is a required course in the MA program. 3 hours seminar. (015962)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 605 Sociological and Cultural Perspectives in Physical Education 3 Units

Typically Offered: Inquire at department

An in-depth study of the theories of the origin of physical education; evaluation and assessment of findings as they relate to today's discipline. 3 hours seminar. (007040)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 606 Sport Psychology 3 Units

Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Evaluation of research and practices in sport psychology relating to cognitive and behavioral aspects of individuals and groups related to sport and exercise. Topics include areas of motivation, personality, team dynamics, and mental and behavioral strategies used to enhance performance. 3 hours seminar. (015961)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 611 Administration of Sport and Exercise Programs 3 Units

Typically Offered: Fall only

This course provides students with an understanding of the issues involved in being an administrator of a sport and/or exercise program. Topics include theories of management, legal issues (including liability), staffing, and budgeting. Students gain experience by managing an event during the semester. 3 hours seminar. (007043)

Grade Basis: ABC/No Credit

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 613 Research in Coaching Science 3 Units

Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This course provides students with an overview of the research in coaching science, including psychological, mental, methodological, and educational aspects of sport coaching. This course considers the many facets of sport coaching from a scholarly perspective. However, student consider how the theoretical, scholarly, and practical aspects of coaching intersect. The course is designed for graduate students in kinesiology (e.g., biomechanics, exercise physiology, physical education, movement studies) who are interested in pursuing a coaching career or who may interact with coaches in any capacity. 3 hours seminar. (021970)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 617 Fieldwork in Adapted Physical Education 3 Units

Typically Offered: Fall and spring

Fieldwork with children in an adapted physical education setting. Involves assessing, diagnosing, and implementing individualized educational programs to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities. May include either teaching or coaching experiences. 9 hours supervision. (006999)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 621 Research on Teaching and Learning in Physical Education 3 Units

Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This course helps graduate students analyze, synthesize, and evaluate the research on teaching and learning in physical education. Content includes systematic observation, qualitative studies, curriculum theory/design, and the enhancement of student learning K-12. 3 hours seminar. (007045)

Grade Basis: Graduate Graded

Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units

Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 622 Adapted Program Implementation3 Units*Prerequisite: Faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall only

The organization, administration, planning, and evaluation of adapted physical activity programs across the lifespan. This course is designed for students who are interested in working with individuals with disabilities in a variety of settings. Programming placements may be selected from preschool programs, public school settings, community-based programs, or programs for older adults. 3 hours supervision. (007046)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 624 Biomechanical Analysis*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 322 and basic computer literacy, faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall only

Introduction to research in biomechanics. Emphasis is on quantitative videographic techniques of sport and exercise activities. Other technological and bibliographic research methods are covered. 3 hours seminar. (015556)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 661 Current Trends and Problems in Physical Education*3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

Trends in physical education, instructional practices, and administration of physical education. Review of current literature in physical education. 3 hours lecture. (007053)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 678 Exercise and Aging*3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This course deals with the aging process and how exercise influences this process. Theories of aging will be presented from both a Western medicine point of view and an Eastern tradition point of view. The relevant physiology of aging will be considered from a "normal" aging perspective and from the perspective of degenerative disease development. Optimal exercise strategies will be discussed with respect to a healthy aging process. 3 hours seminar. (007055)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 679 Advanced Exercise Physiology*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 602, faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall only

Immediate and long-range adaptations of the body to exercise. Physiological limits and work capacities in relation to age, sex, diet, environmental factors, and the nature of activity. 3 hours seminar. (007039)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 681 Exercise Management - Chronic Disease and Disabilities*3 Units*Prerequisite: KINE 322, KINE 323, KINE 480, and faculty permission.Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This seminar is for students and health professionals who desire an in-depth discussion of the role of physical exercise as a medically recognized modality in conjunction with chronic disease and disabilities. This class is designed for all people who are currently working within the medical profession and for those students who are preparing for future careers in paramedical vocational fields. This course will present the most recent research and publications available for the exercise physiology working with individuals who suffer from chronic disease and existing physical disabilities. 3 hours seminar. (007057)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 682 Exercise Cardiology*3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

This seminar course is for students and health professionals who desire an in-depth discussion of cardiology as it relates to exercise physiology. Exercise viewed both in terms of minimizing risk factors and as a cardiac stressor. The role of physical exercise in generating risk, such as excessive free radicals and potassium, and as a cardiac trigger, as in sudden death and heart attack, are explored. Cardiac rehabilitation will be related to exercise prescription. This course considers the most recent research and publications available for exercise physiologists in working with individuals who experience cardiac disease. 3 hours seminar. (007058)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 683 Bioenergetics*3 Units*Typically Offered: Inquire at department

Cellular and molecular adaptations of muscle to exercise and training. How cellular events effect whole body physiology during exercise. 3 hours seminar. (007026)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 689 Practicum in Athletic Training Education*3 Units*Prerequisite: Admission to the Athletic Training Education Option or faculty permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This seminar style course gives a platform on which to discuss the experiences at students' assigned clinic sites. Students are responsible for providing case studies each week from their clinical assignments and interact with peers in solving problems with difficult cases or situations. Students are presented with new or varying treatments and assess protocols or possible rehabilitation programs that may be applicable to the case studies. 3 hours seminar. (007059)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 697 Independent Study 1-3 UnitsTypically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is a graduate-level independent study offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours supervision. (007062)

Grade Basis: Report in Progress: GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 697P Professional Paper 3 Units*Prerequisite: Approval of Advisor and graduate coordinator.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

This course is a graduate-level independent study with the objective of submitting an article for publication. Students must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours independent study. (022221)

Grade Basis: Graduate GradedRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 699P Master's Project 3 Units*Prerequisite: Department Permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. The project is the culminating graduate experience in which you can enroll in lieu of the thesis where the end result is a tangible product. Examples might include facilities planning, compilation of data, construction of a course of study, construction of teaching aids, publication of manuals, or producing a dance production. In each example there will be a written component intended to describe the process, the end result, and the candidate's competence in descriptive writing. 3 hours independent study. (007068)

Grade Basis: Report in Progress: CR/NCRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate DivisionKINE 699T Master's Thesis 1-6 Units*Prerequisite: Department Permission.Typically Offered: Fall and spring

You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 0 hours independent study. (007066)

Grade Basis: Report in Progress: CR/NCRepeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 unitsCourse Attributes: Graduate Division
