Insight

Kinesiology is an integrative discipline that promotes lifelong learning and participation in human movement to enhance quality for all through sport, exercise, and physical activity. The Department of Kinesiology offers innovative and engaging instruction, scholarship, and professional service through its three degree programs: a BS in exercise physiology, a BA in kinesiology, and an MA in kinesiology.

These programs are especially fulfilling for students who have a passion for helping others and who are interested in promoting physical activity and its impact on health, wellness, society, and quality of life. Students study human movement and how the body can function efficiently in a wide variety of settings—everywhere from athletic fields, school hospitals, rehabilitation centers, or research labs.

Coursework focus on several areas of emphasis such as exercise physiology, sport and exercise psychology, physical education teacher education, adapted physical education, coaching, strength and conditioning, biomechanics, and pre-professional training for allied health (e.g., physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, nursing, and medicine).

Experience

Aside from access to the Northern California outdoors, dedicated on-campus space inside Yolo Hall include laboratories for adapted physical education, athletic training, biomechanics, exercise physiology, strength and conditioning, motor behavior, and pedagogy. Other instructional facilities include dance studios, a climbing wall, a ropes course, two gymnasia, tennis courts, outdoor track, weight training/fitness rooms, golf, soccer, and multipurpose fields.

Students participate in service learning and internship experiences to prepare them for future work in a variety of movement related professions. Many of our students engage with the Adapted Physical Education Program which serves over 150 community members through two service learning programs, BE:WEL and the Autism Clinic. These programs, particularly the Autism Clinic, continue to broaden students’ community and campus impact through neurodiversity initiatives, expanding existing student support services, and grant and research work.

Connections with peers and professionals happen through a variety of student clubs including: Exercise Physiology Club, Physical Education/Adapted Physical Education Teacher Education Club, and Strength and Conditioning Club. These clubs support and prepare students for future careers by creating connections, developing leadership skills, interacting with health-care and fitness professionals, and learning how to become knowledgeable candidates for future careers and graduate school.

Outlook

The BA in kinesiology prepares students to teach, coach, and have administrative careers as well as leadership positions in their communities. They become professionals in the fields of physical education, coaching, personal training, fitness and wellness, and adapted physical activity. California State University, Chico physical education and adapted physical education teachers are in high demand and get jobs!

One of the primary goals of the BS in exercise physiology is to prepare students for graduate education in a variety of allied health professions (e.g., physical therapy, occupational therapy, physician assistant, respiratory therapist, corporate fitness nursing, etc.).

Graduates of the master's program fill the need for teachers, coaches, health professionals, and community recreation leaders. Recent graduates have gone on to medical schools, physician assistant programs, physical therapy programs, occupational health programs, and prestigious PhD granting universities.

This course is for outdoor education and recreation leaders and is an introduction to the skills and safety systems associated with beginning rock climbing (e.g., top rope climbing, rappelling, bouldering) and the management of rock climbing in outdoor programs. Additionally, teaching methods appropriate for rock climbing are discussed, demonstrated, and evaluated. This course requires additional field time taught on weekends. 6 hours laboratory, 1 hour lecture. (006686)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division, Sustainable Course

KINE 226  Methods of Teaching Wilderness Living  4 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 121 recommended but not required.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Introduction to basic summer backpacking skills, including equipment, nutrition, fitness, minimum impact camping, safety, beginning map and compass skills, leadership issues, and environmental ethics. Emphasis on technical applications and the implementation of these skills in adventure programs. Successful completion of this course meets the requirements for two national certifications: 1) The Wilderness Education Association’s Wilderness Steward Certification; 2) Leave No Trace Trainer Certification. This course requires a ten-day field session taught over Thanksgiving break. 6 hours laboratory, 2 hours lecture. (006700)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division, Sustainable Course

KINE 227  Winter and the Mountain  4 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 226 or equivalent.
Typically Offered: Spring only
Introduction to winter wilderness living skills including nutrition, minimum impact camping, snow physics, avalanche, safety, medical issues, back country skiing techniques, snow shelters, leadership issues, and environmental ethics. Emphasis is on technical applications and the implementations of these skills in adventure programs. Successful completion of this class earns the student an American Institute of Avalanche Research and Education Level I certification. This is a physically demanding course requiring 10 continuous days of camping in winter conditions. It is not for the novice. 9 hours laboratory, 1 hour lecture. (006685)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division; Sustainable Course

KINE 228  Methods of Teaching Canoeing and Kayaking  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 226 (may be taken concurrently).
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course gives students an introduction to whitewater canoeing and kayaking skills. Students gain an understanding of the equipment, techniques, and procedures to conduct canoeing and kayaking activities in flat water, moving water, and whitewater environments. Emphasis is on the development of individual paddling skills, safe and conscientious paddling, and group management while on moving water. This course requires additional field time taught on weekends. 6 hours laboratory, 1 hour lecture. (006707)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division;

KINE 247  World Sports and Games  3 Units GC, GE
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Student learning focuses on how sports and games are part of an integrated physiological, psychological, and social being in societies around the world. Students develop appreciation, understanding, and respect of various cultural contexts and how sport, games, and play behaviors are part of physical expression and cross-cultural interaction. Student learning in this area shall include consideration of how sport and games are related to human sociality, psychological, well-being, health, and wellness. Students also engage in physical activity participation in global games with emphasis on social relationships. 3 hours lecture. (021258)
General Education: Lifelong Learning and Self-Development (E)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Lower Division; Global Cultures

KINE 295  Disability and Physical Activity in the Media  3 Units GE
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course provides students with an opportunity to learn about disability in film and physical activity. Moreover, the experience provides students an in-depth look into the portrayal of individuals with disabilities in film and media and how this does or does not coincide with societal views and values, education, physical education, politics, individual and group behavior. Perceptions and personal views regarding individuals with disability and their inclusion/segregation in society are explored through visual arts. 3 hours lecture. (020448)
General Education: Lifelong Learning and Self-Development (E)

KINE 316 Principles of Sports Injury Management 4 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Theory and practice in the prevention, care, and rehabilitation of injuries commonly encountered in sport and competitive athletics. Concepts of injury recognition and management will be covered. 2 hours activity, 3 hours clinical. (006902)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 320W Foundations of Exercise and Sport Psychology (W) 3 Units W, GW
Prerequisite: GE Written Communication (A2) requirement; KINE majors and minors only.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course examines the foundations of psycho-social principles, theories, and research related to sport and exercise behavior. Select topics include motivation, goal-setting, stress, anxiety, group dynamics, leadership, injury, and exercise adherence. Students learn how to integrate this knowledge into their given discipline. 3 hours lecture. (006898)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Writing Course; Graduation Writing Assessment

KINE 321 Motor Development and Behavior 3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Theories of motor development, acquisition, and refinement of skills as well as skill themes and movement concepts are studied. Physical, neurological, and physiological principles and qualitative changes in motor skills occurring from infancy to preadolescence and adolescence to older adulthood are analyzed. 3 hours lecture. (006935)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 322 Biomechanics 4 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202 with a grade of C- or higher or faculty permission for non-majors.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Anatomical and mechanical bases of human movement with application to more skillful and safe performance. Qualitative and quantitative methods of analysis are introduced. 2 hours activity, 3 hours lecture. (006973)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 323 Physiology of Exercise 4 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 104 with a grade of C- or higher or faculty permission for non-majors, basic computer literacy skills.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is an in-depth study of the physiology of exercise. Emphasis will be placed on energy metabolism during exercise and its relationship to the circulatory, pulmonary, and neuro-endocrine systems. Practical application will be stressed through discussions of clinical exercise physiology, exercise prescription, environmental exercise physiology, exercise and disease, special populations, biological adaptation, and the biology of peak performance. Concepts will be reinforced through laboratory exercises. 2 hours activity, 3 hours clinical. (006968)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 324 Exercise Physiology: Metabolism 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 323.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course introduces students to the cellular aspects of exercise. Students become familiar with the mechanisms of exercise-induced adaptations and how exercise ameliorates metabolic disorders. Students gain insight into the hormonal and neural regulation of cellular processes, the various processes at the cellular level, the mechanisms responsible for increased enzyme content in trained skeletal muscle, and how exercise affects gene transcription. 3 hours lecture. (006969)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 331 Principles of Team Sports 3 Units
Typically Offered: Spring only
Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of coaching and performing in a team sport environment. One major project will be designed by each student. 3 hours lecture. (007007)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 332 Principles of Individual Sports 3 Units
Prerequisite: Basic computer literacy skills.
Typically Offered: Fall only
Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of coaching and performing in an individual sport environment. One major project will be designed by each student. 3 hours lecture. (007008)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
KINE 335  Youth Fitness  3 Units
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course is designed for pre-service physical educators as well as students who wish to learn about the physiology of children’s movement and methods of enhancing and measuring youth fitness. Topics include the musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, and respiratory systems as they relate to aerobic and anaerobic exercise in children, adolescents, and young adults. This course also addresses the physiological basis of the five components of fitness as well as how to assess them in a physical education setting. Students learn youth fitness concepts and understand how to apply them to teaching K-12 physical education. Students work directly with children to apply concepts and practice assessment techniques. 3 hours lecture. (021467)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 345  Motor Learning and Human Performance  3 Units
Prerequisite: Basic computer skills or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course explores the principles and concepts involved in learning motor skills and the conditions that can influence that learning. Topics may include open and closed loop systems, feedback, attentional focus, inverted u-theory, practice schedules, and many others. 3 hours lecture. (006939)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 346  Sport and Society  3 Units
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course examines the connections between sport and society, including socialization, values, education, deviance, the economy, and the media. Attention is given to the ways that gender, race, social class, sexuality, and the body influence sports, as well as recent controversial issues such as player and fan violence, and drug abuse among athletes. 3 hours lecture. (006942)
Cross listing(s): SOCI 346
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 351  Aquatics for the Adapted Instructor  2 Units
Prerequisite: First Aid and CPR or faculty permission; WSI recommended.
Typically Offered: Spring only
Specific instructor training in aquatics programs for individuals with disabilities. Inclusive and developmentally appropriate aquatic activities, sports, and games are included. Qualified students may earn Special Olympic coach’s certification in aquatics. 2 hours clinical. (006784)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 4 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 386  Sports Epidemiology  3 Units
Prerequisite: Basic computer skills or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Methods of epidemiology are now being applied to sports performance, injury prevention and recovery, and exercise-related disease prevention. This course will cover observational study design and analysis, including elementary probability theory using Bayes rule, sampling, relative risk, odds ratio, data adjustment via elementary analysis covariance, and data extrapolation and prediction. 3 hours lecture. (006974)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 390  Principles of Strength and Conditioning  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 323
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Course is designed to offer sound, systematic training programs for individuals who wish to apply strength and conditioning techniques to specific sports and/or physical activities. Various new and traditional weight training techniques and programs will be reviewed in light of desired outcomes for the individual participant in sports and physical activities. 3 hours lecture. (006959)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 398  Special Topics  1-3 Units
Prerequisite: Department permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. 1 hour lecture. (006987)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course more than once
Course Attributes: Upper Division
KINE 399  Special Problems  1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is an independent study of special problems and is offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours supervision.  (006988)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 410  Developmentally Appropriate Physical Education for Middle School Students  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 309.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Students learn about developmentally appropriate physical education for youth in middle school (grades 6-8). Students also learn about the philosophies and goals/objectives, curriculum content, and evaluative techniques using sport activities such as lacrosse, team handball, ultimate frisbee, and disc golf. 2 hours activity, 2 hours clinical.  (006893)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 411  Assessment in Physical Education  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 309, faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
The course is designed for the prospective physical education teacher. Application of tests and measurements in the evaluation process will be defined. Included will be the evaluation of sport skill, motor ability, physical performance, and cardiovascular fitness. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture.  (006972)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 430  Administration and Management of Sport and Fitness Programs  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall only
Course includes laboratory projects and written exams which cover the essential elements of administration/managership of modern day physical education and athletic programs. Students will be systematically introduced to the meaning of management and the different styles of management in the conduct of specific programs such as intramurals, athletics, instructional programs, clubs, corporate fitness, etc. One major project will be designed by each student. 2 hours field studies, 2 hours lecture.  (007006)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 460  Foundations of Outdoor Education  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course provides the historical and philosophical foundations for using the outdoors as a medium for learning. Basic teaching and leadership styles used in instruction are emphasized, including a detailed look at the ethics involved in using the outdoors and adventure programming in education. 3 hours lecture.  (007019)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 461  Theory of Outdoor Leadership  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 460.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course discusses the theoretical foundations of outdoor leadership. Instruction incorporates a focused investigation into the nature of outdoor leadership as a profession; including the theory and application of outdoor leadership and the core competencies of being an outdoor leader. The goal is to learn about the elements that comprise effective leadership in the outdoors. 3 hours lecture.  (020981)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 470  Outdoor Education Immersion Semester  15 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 226 and one of the following KINE 244, KINE 227, KINE 228 or equivalent.
Typically Offered: Spring only odd years
Semester-long wilderness experience providing future teachers, counselors, and group leaders with a foundation to planning theory, goals, and safety practices of an extended wilderness expedition. The course is field-based, meaning that the classroom is remote wilderness settings. Key in this instruction is the participant's involvement in a group development experience while at the same time learning the skills, knowledge, and awareness necessary to conduct safe, ethical, and effective wilderness-based learning programs. Substitution with courses from the National Outdoor Leadership School, Outward Bound, the Wilderness Education Association, or other qualified programs is possible. 45 hours clinical.  (007022)
Grade Basis: ABC/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 480  Exercise Testing and Prescription  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 323.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Introduction to the essential principles and skills of exercise testing and prescription. Students acquire knowledge of and skill in risk factor and health status identification, fitness appraisal, and exercise prescription for low to moderate risk individuals and individuals with controlled diseases. Students demonstrate the ability to incorporate suitable and innovative activities that will improve an individual's functional capacity. In addition, advanced concepts of strength, flexibility and body composition are discussed. 2 hours activity, 2 hours lecture.  (007023)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 482  Exercise Pathophysiology  3 Units
Prerequisite: Bachelor's Degree in any discipline or KINE 323 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Exercise Pathophysiology, formerly known as Medical Topics in Exercise Physiology, focuses on how exercise ameliorates various chronic disorders. The course addresses obesity, metabolic, cardiovascular, muscular, skeletal, and auto-immune disorders. 3 hours seminar.  (007027)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
KINE 484 Developmentally Appropriate Physical Education for High School Students. 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 305, KINE 308, KINE 309, KINE 410, KINE 411.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is designed to provide students with the tools and inspiration needed to become effective and reflective teachers of physical education at the high school level. Students learn: how to use NASPE and CA State standards to develop quality lesson plans for instruction; concepts and techniques that promote developmentally appropriate physical education for youth in high school (grades 9-12); implications of research for teaching quality physical education focused on helping students become active for life; and the important role the physical educator plays in adolescents' physical activity participation. Students develop and improve their own knowledge and skills in health-related fitness activities such as cardio-kickboxing, yoga, and inline skating. They also learn how to use a variety of fitness equipment in ways that fosters enjoyable fitness development for high school students. 2 hours activity; 2 hours clinical. (006894)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 485 Seminar in Sports Medicine 3 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 103 or KINE 202, KINE 323 (may be taken concurrently); or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is designed to explore the diseases and injuries typically encountered in sports and exercise. Topics include physiology of adaptations, prevention of athletic injuries, physiology of trauma and inflammation, musculoskeletal arthritis, and environmental distress. 3 hours seminar. (007028)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 489 Internship Seminar 3 Units
Prerequisite: At least junior standing and faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Preparation and supervised practical work or leadership experience in various private and public agencies, organizations and services which may include: hospitals, recreation programs, community and professional organizations, health clubs, corporations, clinics, schools and athletic programs. Specific internship placements are required for given emphases and certifications. See your advisor. 3 hours seminar. (006980)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 489L Assistant Leadership Seminar 1 Unit
Prerequisite: KINE 470 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Students who have demonstrated a high level of proficiency serve as assistant instructors in a selected Outdoor Education course. Students take active leadership roles; planning, sequencing and teaching adventure topics and skills; develop a comprehensive risk management plan. Students receive supervision and feedback on their leadership, instructional planning and teaching skills. The Teaching Assistant may need to be involved in field-based trips lasting 2 to 15 days and should, schedule accordingly. 1 hour seminar. (020982)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 505 Exercise Behavior and Adherence 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 320W or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is a study of the inter-relationships of behavioral, mental, and personal factors of exercise. Topics include exercise motivation, interventions and adherence; the impact of exercise on mood states; and the relationships between exercise, mental health and immune function. New skills such as interview are introduced. Focus is both theoretical and practical. 3 hours lecture. (020852)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 513 Programming in Disability Sport 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall only
A study of disability sport and programming for individuals with orthopedic, neurological, and sensory disabilities. Evaluation of the anatomical and physiological implications and their effect upon psychomotor functioning. 3 hours clinical. (006897)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 514 Programming for Intellectual, Neurological, and Learning Disabilities 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
A study of programming for individuals with disabilities, including intellectual, neurological, learning, and other health impairments. Instructional methods and intervention strategies will be explored in the psychomotor domain. 3 hours lecture. (020035)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 515 Collaboration in Adapted Physical Education 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Spring only
The development and interrelationships personal-social aspects of human movement, groups, and physical education, recreation, and sport experiences throughout the lifespan for individuals with disabilities. Focus includes social influences and interrelationships of peer relations, professional interactions, interdisciplinary team dynamics, and family systems. 3 hours lecture. (006998)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 516 Motor Assessment for Individuals with Disabilities 3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 315 or faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall only
Assessment of physical growth, motor development and proficiency, nutrition, motor fitness, and perceptual motor characteristics of individuals with disabilities. Emphasis is placed on testing procedures, evaluation of screening devices, authentic assessment, and practical implementation. Specific assessment instruments will be those commonly used in an adapted physical education setting. 3 hours lecture. (006997)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
KINE 520  Interdis Autism Clinic  3 Units
Prerequisite: A survey course on disability, faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is designed for students who are interested in working with individuals with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and their families. Students examine evidence-based practices for ASD, as well as the organization, administration, planning, and evaluation of interdisciplinary programming. Students spend 2 hours per week in the Autism Clinic observing interventions for promoting physical activity and healthy behaviors. 3 hours seminar. (020201)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 524W  Biomechanical Analysis (W)  3 Units W
Prerequisite: KINE 322 and basic computer literacy.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Introduction to research in biomechanics. Emphasis is on quantitative videographic techniques of sport and exercise activities. Other technological and bibliographic research methods are covered. 3 hours seminar. (007003)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Writing Course

KINE 530  Advanced Principles of Strength and Conditioning  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 322 (may be taken concurrently), KINE 323, KINE 390.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This class provides the fundamental theories, applications, and hands on experiences necessary for a comprehensive understanding of the applied principles of strength and conditioning for athletic populations. Requirement for certification as a Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association are addressed. Students learn to develop optimal training programs, using periodization training principles for a variety of sports, positions, and events. Students are assigned to CSUC athletic teams for hands on practical experience. 3 hours lecture. (021468)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Writing Course

KINE 544  Facilitating the Adventure Experience  3 Units
Prerequisite: KINE 222 recommended.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course focuses on the process of facilitation. Specific attention is paid to transfer of learning, outdoor education process/theory, use of metaphors, small group development, debriefing/processing, providing appropriate feedback, therapeutic approaches, framing experiences, and the various theories involved in the use of adventure experiences as a medium for education/therapy. Applications are generalized to specific populations (e.g., youth at risk, chemical dependency, businesses, university orientation programs, and public schools). This class focuses on advanced methods of facilitation and processing. 3 hours lecture. (007021)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division; Sustainable Course

KINE 556  Anatomical and Pathomechanical Aspects of Sports Injuries  3 Units
Prerequisite: BIOL 103, BIOL 104, KINE 322.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
The study of select human anatomy and specific pathomechanics related to sports and physical activity injuries. The course will focus on the role of anatomical structure and pathomechanical mechanisms of joint and tissue specific to injuries that occur to physically active populations. Previous study of human anatomy and kinesiology are required. 3 hours seminar. (007030)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 558  Seminar in Sport and Physical Activity Health Care  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Advanced study of sports and physical activity health care. Topics include concepts of pathological orthopedic radiography, pharmacology, surgical techniques and recovery, and current trends in human performance health care. Previous study of athletic injury evaluation and rehabilitation required. 3 hours seminar. (007032)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 559  Internship in Kinesiology  1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is an internship offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 9 hours supervision. (020921)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 15 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 598  Special Topics  1-3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is for special topics offered for 1.0-3.0 units. Typically the topic is offered on a one-time-only basis and may vary from term to term and be different for different sections. See the Class Schedule for the specific topic being offered. 1 hour lecture. (007033)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course more than once
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 599  Special Problems  1-3 Units
Prerequisite: Faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is an independent study of special problems offered for 1.0-3.0 units. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 3 hours supervision. (007035)
Grade Basis: Credit/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division
KINE 599H  Physical Education Honors Senior Research  3 Units
Prerequisite: For Honors students only, who have completed 9 upper-division units in physical education courses. Permission of Honors advisor required, faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
An intensive senior year, two-semester culminating experience taken as two 3-unit classes in consecutive semesters. Project outline and research first semester. Honors paper or project is prepared during second semester. High level of academic excellence is required. The paper or project must be approved by the department's Honor Advisor, the Department Chair, and the University Honors Director. The paper or project must be publicly presented. 3 hours seminar. (007036)
Grade Basis: Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 6 units
Course Attributes: Upper Division

KINE 600  Seminar in Kinesiology  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall only
A course designed to investigate the relationship between the various facets of the discipline of kinesiology, including philosophy, history, psychology, sociology, exercise physiology, perceptual-motor learning, biomechanics, athletic training, and pedagogy. 3 hours seminar. (007037)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 601  Statistical Methods in Kinesiology Research  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall only
Study of the descriptive and inferential statistics commonly used in kinesiology research. Emphasis is on learning concepts critical to reading research and using statistical computer programs with kinesiology data. 3 hours seminar. (007038)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 602  Research Design in Kinesiology  3 Units
Typically Offered: Spring only
The formation of research problems, evaluation of research, and research report styles in kinesiology. The interrelation of theory and research and the variety of research methods (e.g., descriptive, experimental, qualitative) are examined. This is a required course in the MA program. 3 hours seminar. (015962)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 605  Sociological and Cultural Perspectives in Physical Education  3 Units
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
An in-depth study of the theories of the origin of physical education; evaluation and assessment of findings as they relate to today's discipline. 3 hours seminar. (007040)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 606  Sport Psychology  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Evaluation of research and practices in sport psychology relating to cognitive and behavioral aspects of individuals and groups related to sport and exercise. Topics include areas of motivation, personality, team dynamics, and mental and behavioral strategies used to enhance performance. 3 hours seminar. (015961)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 611  Administration of Sport and Exercise Programs  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall only
This course provides students with an understanding of the issues involved in being an administrator of a sport and/or exercise program. Topics include theories of management, legal issues (including liability), staffing, and budgeting. Students gain experience by managing an event during the semester. 3 hours seminar. (007043)
Grade Basis: ABC/No Credit
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 613  Research in Coaching Science  3 Units
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course provides students with an overview of the research in coaching science, including psychological, mental, methodological, and educational aspects of sport coaching. This course considers the many facets of sport coaching from a scholarly perspective. However, students consider how the theoretical, scholarly, and practical aspects of coaching intersect. The course is designed for graduate students in kinesiology (e.g., biomechanics, exercise physiology, physical education, movement studies) who are interested in pursuing a coaching career or who may interact with coaches in any capacity. 3 hours seminar. (021970)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 617  Fieldwork in Adapted Physical Education  3 Units
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Fieldwork with children in an adapted physical education setting. Involves assessing, diagnosing, and implementing individualized educational programs to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities. May include either teaching or coaching experiences. 9 hours supervision. (006999)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 621  Research on Teaching and Learning in Physical Education  3 Units
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course helps graduate students analyze, synthesize, and evaluate the research on teaching and learning in physical education. Content includes systematic observation, qualitative studies, curriculum theory/design, and the enhancement of student learning K-12. 3 hours seminar. (007045)
Grade Basis: Graduate Graded
Repeatability: You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units
Course Attributes: Graduate Division

KINE 699P  Master’s Project  3 Units

Prerequisite: Department Permission.

Typically Offered: Fall and spring

You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. The project is the culminating graduate experience in which you can enroll in lieu of the thesis where the end result is a tangible product. Examples might include facilities planning, compilation of data, construction of a course of study, construction of teaching aids, publication of manuals, or producing a dance production. In each example there will be a written component intended to describe the process, the end result, and the candidate’s competence in descriptive writing. 3 hours independent study.
