

ENGLISH MINOR

The Minor in English is a great way to experience an abbreviated version of the major by taking elective courses in creative writing, composition and rhetoric, linguistics, and literature, while still having the flexibility to pursue other academic interests. An English minor works well with any major and may be especially useful for those majoring in the humanities, social sciences, business, and STEM fields.

The minor provides a short version of the major requirements, including a 12-unit core in literary analysis, rhetoric, and surveys of American and British literature.
