Criminal Justice (CRIM)

See Course Description Symbols and Terms (https://catalog.csuchico.edu/academic-standards-policies/course-description-symbols-terms/) for an explanation of course description terminology and symbols, the course numbering system, and course credit units.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Units</th>
<th>GE, USD</th>
<th>Typically Offered</th>
<th>Prerequisite</th>
<th>Repeatability</th>
<th>Grade Basis</th>
<th>Course Attributes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>Introduction to Criminal Justice</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>GE, USD</td>
<td>Spring only</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Lower Division, US Diversity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 257</td>
<td>Juvenile Justice Process</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>Inquire at department</td>
<td>CRIM 364</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Lower Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 259</td>
<td>Chico Police Service Learning Practicum</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>Inquire at department</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Lower Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 312</td>
<td>Issues in Criminal Justice</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>Inquire at department</td>
<td>CRIM 250 or concurrent enrollment</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 9 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 332</td>
<td>Criminal Justice Ethics</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>Fall and spring</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 352</td>
<td>Policing in America</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>CRIM 250.</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 353</td>
<td>Corrections</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>CRIM 250.</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 354</td>
<td>Community Corrections</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>CRIM 250.</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 363</td>
<td>Crime Prevention</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>CRIM 250.</td>
<td>CRIM 250</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CRIM 364</td>
<td>Restorative Justice</td>
<td>3</td>
<td></td>
<td>CRIM 250 (may be taken concurrently)</td>
<td>CRIM 250 (may be taken concurrently)</td>
<td>You may take this course for a maximum of 3 units</td>
<td>Graded</td>
<td>Upper Division</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CRIMINAL JUSTICE (CRIM)
CRIM 384  Criminology
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
The study of crime and criminal behavior as a social phenomenon. Adopting a sociological perspective, this course examines crime trends, types of crime, and social and personal factors related to criminal behavior. Special attention is paid to inequality in the criminal justice system, street and white-collar crimes, victimization and other social costs of crime and punishment. 3 hours lecture. (009017)
Cross listing(s): SOCI 384

CRIM 415  Comparative Criminal Justice
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course introduces students to different criminal justice systems around the world. After an introduction about the relevance of comparative research and methodological challenges that can arise when doing such work, students learn about the criminal justice systems of different countries in the world and their wider historical, cultural, political, and economic contexts. 3 hours lecture. (022074)

CRIM 416  Pop Culture and Criminal Justice
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course encourages students to analyze the complexities of popular culture in greater focus and depth and to understand the ways in which criminal justice is represented in popular culture and, in some circumstances, may be influenced by popular culture. 3 hours lecture. (022220)

CRIM 417  Hate Crimes
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course explores what hate crime is, how it is enforced, as well as the societal ramifications of and on hate crime. During this course, students examine what the different definitions of hate crime look like and how they have evolved over time, as well as how law enforcement agencies have reacted to this evolution. Students analyze what societal influences may impact the types and frequencies of hate crime commission, as well as how society has responded to bias-motivated crime in the policy arena and in media responses. 3 hours lecture. (022368)

CRIM 418  Research Symposium Experience
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course culminates with the presentation of student work at a research conference or symposium, such as the department's fall student research symposium, the BSS spring student research symposium, or other professional conferences. Student presentation of work may be accomplished through a variety of formats, such as oral presentations, poster presentations, or panel presentations. 1 hour supervision. (022539)

CRIM 419  Independent Study
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course is an independent study of special problems. You must register directly with a supervising faculty member. 0 hours independent study. (022538)

CRIM 439W  Senior Seminar in Criminal Justice (W)
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
This course involves an integrated and in-depth analysis of selected topics in criminal justice. It assess senior-level student's written and oral communication skills and their ability to critically evaluate information, theories, policies, and social issues. 3 hours seminar. (007591)

CRIM 476  Police Administration and Management
Typically Offered: Inquire at department
This course introduces students to the organization of police departments and exploits the history of policing and organizational theory. It further examines the role of the police executive as a public manager and as a leadership position. Topics for the course include departmental management, police operations, budgeting, discipline, promotion, external political factors, and public planning and research. By the end of the course, students should have a general knowledge of public organizations and specific knowledge about the operation and management of police departments. 3 hours lecture. (007595)

CRIM 489E  Internship in Criminal Justice
Prerequisite: Faculty permission.
Typically Offered: Spring, summer, fall
Field work with criminal justice agencies in the areas of policing, courts, and corrections. Work supervised by the faculty internship coordinator and the staff of the internship office. Directed readings and writings may be assigned. 0 hours independent study. (007618)

CRIM 499  Internship in Criminal Justice
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Field work with criminal justice agencies in the areas of policing, courts, and corrections. Work supervised by the faculty internship coordinator and the staff of the internship office. Directed readings and writings may be assigned. 0 hours independent study. (007618)

CRIM 595  Internship in Criminal Justice
Typically Offered: Fall and spring
Field work with criminal justice agencies in the areas of policing, courts, and corrections. Work supervised by the faculty internship coordinator and the staff of the internship office. Directed readings and writings may be assigned. 0 hours independent study. (007618)